RE: Infection Prevention and Control Webinar

We are thrilled to announce an educational webinar on Infection Prevention and Control in Your Home offered by the VDSS Infection Prevention & Control Team. This webinar is geared towards residents of assisted living facilities (ALFs) and participants in adult day care centers (ADCCs) and their family members and will feature discussions on maintaining a healthy and infection-free environment at home. Topics such as hand hygiene, respiratory and cough etiquette, as well as general and sick cleaning and disinfecting will be covered. This is an excellent opportunity to add this educational opportunity to the activity calendar in September.

Register for this free and exciting training opportunity by visiting this link or scan the QR Code below:

This Infection Prevention and Control training will be held on September 27, 2023, at 10:00 am Eastern Time.

**Please post this memo and flyer in a conspicuous place and email to family members to access and sign up. For any questions related to this training, please contact ipcteam@dss.virginia.gov
