

Length of Program Participation

Child Care Subsidy families often cycle on and off the program. According to a 2010 research brief completed by the Office of Research of the Department of Social Services, a family's first "spell" or consecutive months of program participation ranges from five to eight months. Approximately 52% of families have a second spell of program participation with a three month "break" between spells. Most families have only two spells of participation.