Once your application is submitted to VDSS, the agency that was initially involved in your adoption will be designated to conduct the search. You will be given the agency's name and contact information within 30 days of the date your application is received. The agency has 90 days to conduct the search. Additional time can be granted to complete the search. Once the search is complete, the agency will send a report to VDSS with a recommendation about whether to grant or deny the application. If your application is denied, or if VDSS fails to designate an agency to conduct the search within 30 days of receipt of the application, you have the right to petition the court for disclosure. If you are a Virginia resident, you may petition the circuit court in the county or city where you reside. If you live out of state, you must petition the Richmond City Circuit Court. VDSS must be made a party to your petition.
By completing this application, you, hereby apply to the Commissioner of the Virginia Department of Social Services (VDSS) for disclosure of information from the closed adoption record pursuant to the Code of Virginia §§ 63.2-1246 and 63.2-1247.
